Juilliard JAZZ SUMMER WORKSHOPS

The Juilliard International Jazz Camp (JIJC), July 5 – 10, 2010, is a one-week program for middle school and high school students, grades 6 to 12, who are dedicated, disciplined, and passionate about jazz. In collaboration with the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Washington, the JIJC is located at Camp Brown in Scotland, MD. The program is designed to give young jazz musicians a taste of what a Juilliard Jazz student's life is all about: refining technique, performance, and broadening understanding of various jazz styles. Teachers include members of the Juilliard Jazz Division faculty, as well as Juilliard students.

Instruments for the Juilliard International Jazz Camp: Saxophone, Trumpet, Trombone, Guitar, Piano, Double Bass, Electric Bass, and Drums.

Please note:

- Guitar, Double Bass, and Electric Bass students are required to bring their own amp and pick-up cables to all rehearsals and performances.
- There is no vocal program.

JIJC music requirements: The camp will begin with placement into ensembles with students. Students will be asked to:

- Students should be prepared to play C Jam Blues by Duke Ellington
- Advanced students may choose a jazz standard from the list below:
 - Blue Bossa
 - Autumn Leaves
 - Stella by Starlight
 - Now's The Time
- Students may be asked to play 1 major and/or 1 minor scale (2 octaves)

Application deadline: April 1, 2010
